

King County Search And Rescue Association, and the King County Sheriff's Office, present the:

Spring 2008 KCSARA Academy

What: The KCSARA Academy offers an opportunity to refresh the state and county requirements for emergency workers in King County. Additionally, enrichment classes are available for your personal interest.

When: Two weekends: April 12-13 and May 3-4, 2008.

Where: South Seattle Community College (Tentatively)

PLEASE BRING YOUR OWN FOOD AND BEVERAGE

CLASS REGISTRATION (please print legibly, and check those classes you're registering for)

Name: _____ Email _____

Phone Home: _____ Cell: _____ Work: _____

FIRST WEEKEND

Saturday, April 12, 2008

- Map & Compass, Initial Class – 0800-1700
- Basic & Intermediate Helicopter – 0900-1200
- SAR Medical Tips-n-Tricks – 0900-1200
- Crime Scene Awareness – 1300-1600
- Hazardous Materials – 1300-1500
- GPS 101 – 1500-1700

Sunday, April 13, 2008

- First Aid/CPR/BBP, Refresher – 0800-1200
- SAR Techniques– 1000-1200
- Tracking Awareness – 1000-1200
- Intro to Emergency Worker – 1300-1600
- SAR Survival – 1300-1700
- Operations Round Table – 1300-1500
- Pratt River Search Guidelines – 1500-1700

SECOND WEEKEND

Saturday, May 3, 2008

- First Aid/CPR, Initial Class – 0800-1700
- Crime Scene Awareness – 0900-1200
- Radio Protocols – 1000-1200
- Basic & Intermediate Helicopter – 1300-1600
- HAM Test – 1300-1700

Sunday, May 4, 2008

- SAR Survival – 0800-1200
- Intro to Emergency Worker – 0900-1000
- Winching– 1000-1200
- Map & Compass, Refresher– 1300-1700
- SAR Techniques – 1300-1600
- Swift water Awareness – 1300-1500
- GPS 101 – 1500-1700

Fax registration to KCSO SAR Coordinator Deputy Kathy Decker (206-205-8282), or mail a copy to: KCSARA Academy Registration, 7300 Perimeter Road South, Room 143, Seattle, WA 98108-3848.